Adventure

You are walking in the park on a beautiful, sunny day. You see something shiny under a big bush and stop to see what it is.

Turn to page 2.

You look under the bush and you see a golden key,
and a white feather.

Then you hear the noise again. It is a voice, and it is talking to you.

Turn to page 3.

The voice says,

“Here is a key and a feather,
and they both might be fun.
But you must make a choice,
because you can only take one.”

If you pick up the key, go to page 4.
If you pick up the feather, go to page 8.

You pick up the key and hold it in your hand. It feels warm.

Then you see a trail behind the bush that leads into the trees and decide to follow it to see what is there.

Turn to page 5.

The path leads to a huge tree, and behind the huge tree you see a huge wall with a huge gate.

And standing next to the huge gate is a huge Troll. The Troll looks at you and says,

“The guard of the gate is the best job for me,
And no one gets past without the gate key.”

Go to page 6.

You hold out your hand and show the key to the huge Troll. The Troll says,

"My oh my, and mercy me.
You are the one with the special key.
Hurry now, I won't make you wait,
just use your key to open the gate."

Turn to page 7.

You put your key in lock and the huge gate swings
open.

The huge Troll smiles and takes the key from the lock at you as you walk through the open gate.

Turn to page 13.

You pick up the feather and hold it in your hand.
It feels light and fuzzy.

Then you see a trail behind the bush that leads into the trees and decide to follow it to see what is there.

Turn to page 9.

The path leads to a huge tree, and behind the huge tree you see a huge wall with a huge gate.

And standing next to the huge gate is a huge Troll. The Troll looks at you and says,

“The guard of the gate is the best job for me,
And no one gets past without the gate key.”

Go to page 10.

You don't have the key!

You look around for another way to get past the huge wall, but it is just too tall. The huge Troll is staring at you.

Then you feel the feather move in your hand. You look at it and see that it is glowing and slowly moving back and forth.

Turn to page 11.

The feather moves faster and faster and begins to float out of your hand. You grab hold of it, but it just keeps floating.

You grab it with both hands, and it keeps floating up. You hold on as you feel your feet lift off the ground.

HANG ON!

Turn to page 12.

You hang on tight as the feather lifts you way up in the air, higher than the huge gate and the huge wall.

The huge Troll watches you as the feather floats over the huge gate and the huge wall and then slowly sinks back down to let your feet touch the ground again.

The feather disappears.

Turn to page 13.

You and are standing inside the huge wall and see the huge gate behind you.

In front of you, the path goes into the trees. You can hear the sounds of water running somewhere in the trees.

Turn to page 14.

You walk down the path through some bushes.
When you get through them, you see what the sound of water is coming from.

There is a river crossing the path. It looks too deep to wade across and too wide to swim.

But next to the river you see three logs that are tied together kind of like a raft.

And you also see an old bridge. And I mean an OLD bridge.

If you get on the raft, go to page 15.

If get on the bridge, go to page 16.
